

Notice Informing Individuals About Nondiscrimination and Accessibility Requirements

Discrimination is Against the Law

Central Peninsula Hospital complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex (consistent with the scope of sex discrimination described at 45 CFR § 92.101(a)(2)) Central Peninsula Hospital does not exclude people or treat them less favorably because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Central Peninsula Hospital:

- Provides people with disabilities reasonable modifications and free appropriate auxiliary aids and services to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - o Qualified sign language interpreters
 - o Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats).

- Provides free language assistance services to people whose primary language is not English, which may include:
 - o Qualified interpreters
 - o Information written in other languages.

If you need reasonable modifications, appropriate auxiliary aids and services, or language assistance services, contact your care provider or the 1557 Coordinator/Compliance Officer.

If you believe that Central Peninsula Hospital has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with:
